Purchase Tickets for Taste of ’Dena!

Don’t miss a night of music, culinary delights, and wine tasting at the Main Library! The Altadena Library Foundation (ALF) is pleased to present its 2nd Annual Taste of ’Dena fundraiser, to take place on Saturday, September 29 at 7:00pm.

The evening will feature amuse-bouches from several local eateries, tastings from California wineries and breweries, a mystery Wine Pull and other wine games, and a unique auction collection, all surrounded by the beauty of the historical Main Library building. The Gerry Rothschild Band will perform as the musical guest. Proceeds will benefit the Foundation’s efforts to improve library accessibility for the entire community, through both physical improvements and programming.

“After our success in raising over $14,000 at last year’s event, 2017 was a year of great growth for the Altadena Library Foundation,” says Foundation President Cynthia Carmona, “We look forward to bringing Altadenans together once again in support of our libraries, bolstering the Foundation’s important work toward making our District the best it can be in service of this unique community.”

Community Connections

On Saturday, September 15, from 10:00am to 2:00pm, the following local organizations will be at the Main Library, ready to answer questions, share information, and help you get involved in your community:

- Altadena Coalition of Neighborhood Associations (ACONA)
- Altadena Heritage
- Altadena Historical Society
- Altadena Map Your Neighborhood
- Altadena Town Council
- ChapCare
- Citizen’s Climate Lobby
- Day One
- Five Acres
- Immigration Resource Center of San Gabriel Valley
- Neighbors Building a Better Altadena (NBBA)
- Pasadena Education Network (PEN)
- Pasadena Humane Society & SPCA
- Pasadena Village
- Rotary Club of Altadena
- Pasadena YWCA

We all lead busy lives, but volunteering in one’s community plays a critical role in determining one’s happiness. Many studies have found that because volunteering connects you to others, can benefit your career, and is generally fun and fulfilling, the likelihood of happiness in people who volunteer regularly (versus those who never volunteer) rises 7 to 12% (London School of Economics). Use this opportunity at the Library to explore the many ways you can enrich your life by volunteering with local organizations!

For full descriptions of these organizations, please visit the Community Resource Fair event page online at www.altadenalibrary.org/programs.

After you’ve met all the local organizations inside, stick around for Shredder Day in the Main Library Parking Lot! From 10:00am to 2:00pm, bring old documents, paperwork, bills, and printed statements to be shredded at this secure shredding event powered by JP Paper Shredders. Please remove all rubber bands and plastic bags from your paperwork before dropping it off.

FRIENDS of the Altadena Library

PRESIDENT MARK MARISCAL’S MONTHLY UPDATE

The WARM nights of August have just passed us by. For those of you who participated in the Summer Reading Programs (children and adults), I know you enjoyed the air conditioning of the library during your various visits to exchange books. For those of you reading this that did not spend as much time in the library this summer as you would have liked, please check the calendar for the many upcoming programs that are available for you to take advantage of.

The Friends of the Altadena Library is always thrilled when we receive feedback from library users who are happy to hear about the programs sponsored by our group through our fund raising and memberships. Some of the “thank you’s” I heard were about the Wizard of Oz movie night, the different Star War themed events and even from a group who worked with Yuni (the Library’s Volunteer Coordinator) helping to make outdoor improvements. The community of Altadena is so fortunate to have strong local support. Collectively, the core volunteers and Board of Directors of the Friends give more than 120 hours per month making our library a better place.

During the August Board of Directors meeting, the Friends approved a budget that allocates $24,000 for library support for programs and materials. I look forward to knowing that you are reading the books purchased with funds raised and seeing you at many of these events. Again, we are a membership organization and count on all of you to purchase items in the Friends Book Store located inside the library and join by paying a membership fee.

Established in 1959, the Friends of the Altadena Library is an organization committed to the support of the Altadena Library District and its programs and services. Learn more and become a Friend at www.altadenalibrary.org/friends-library.
Submit Poetry for the Altadena Poetry Review

Share your poetic talents with the community! Submissions for the Altadena Poetry Review 2019 (APR) will be accepted until October 22, 2018. This year, submissions of poetry (three pages max) and prose (two single-spaced pages) will be accepted, though the majority of the content in the APR will be poetry. Work will be selected through a blind submissions and selection process.

Authors chosen to be included in the Review will be invited to read their work at the annual publication party “Poetry & Cookies” on Sunday, April 28, 2019 from 11:00am to 4:30pm at the Main Library. This event draws large crowds of poetry lovers each year and is a wonderful opportunity for the community to bond over their shared love of artistic expression.

Altadena Library District Receives Great Stories Club Grant for Teens

The Altadena Library District has been selected as one of 100 libraries nationwide to take part in the Great Stories Club, a reading and discussion program for underserved teens. This competitive grant is offered by the American Library Association (ALA) with support from the National Endowment for the Humanities.

Teen Librarian Kate Shumaker will partner with Day One Pasadena to meet with teens in the Main Library Teen Space the 2nd Thursday of the month from September to January at 4:00 - 5:00pm to read and discuss stories that explore the concept of empathy. (Check www.altadenalibrary.org/teens to confirm dates through the holidays)

The books — curated for the theme “Empathy: The Cost of Switching Sides” — will be chosen from titles selected in consultation with humanities scholars and librarians to inspire teens — especially those facing difficult circumstances or challenges — to consider “big questions” about the world around them and their place in it, ultimately affecting how they view themselves as thinkers and creators.

As part of the grant, Altadena Library District will receive 11 copies of each of the selected books, which will be gifted to the book club participants. The District will also receive resources and training, including travel and accommodations for an orientation workshop in Chicago. The workshops will include dialogue facilitation training led by consultants to Everyday Democracy and program modeling led by national project scholars Maria Sachiko Cecire (Bard College) and Anna Mae Duane (University of Connecticut).

Artist on Display:
Andrew Robinson

From Tuesday, September 4, through Friday, October 26, the Community Room will feature the artwork of Andrew Robinson. On Saturday, September 8, from 4:30pm to 6:00pm, the public is invited to an Artist’s Reception in the Community Room where they can enjoy light refreshments and have an opportunity to meet Andrew in person, as well as purchase his books. Andrew says of his work:

“Since my childhood I have had a huge affinity for the human figure. My style is built upon a foundation of life drawing, life painting, and art history, with a focus on early twentieth century modern art, a BFA in illustration, years of producing art for graphic novels, animation, magazines, posters and trading cards. In 2013, with the release of The Fifth Beatle I became a NYTimes best-selling artist. In the following year I won the Eisner Award, Harvey Award and the Silver Ruben from the National Cartoonist’s Society for my painted illustrations in The Fifth Beatle graphic novel and in 2015 Brazil awarded me best foreign sequential artist with the release of the Portuguese translated version.

My personal work continues to focus on the figure. Undertones of tragic love and the space that brings us together and the universe that tears us apart are visually defined with ambiguous backgrounds and graphic design sensibilities. My technique is a mixed media combination of acrylic, oils, colored inks, vine charcoal and layers of magazine transfer and collage. The exhibit at the Altadena Library will include my personal paintings as well as selected original pages from The Fifth Beatle.”

Fall Volunteer Opportunities

As fall fast approaches, so does the Season of Gratitude. At Altadena Library District, we are constantly reminded of how fortunate we are to have a team of dedicated volunteers pushing forward Library initiatives. To all Summer Reading volunteers that gave their time and effort to ensure every summer reader had an amazing experience, we are so grateful!

If you want to join the dynamic team of volunteers that help make our Libraries the best they can be, there are plenty of opportunities this fall to get involved:

- Literacy Tutoring: Get trained to tutor adult learners in literacy skills!
- General Library Support: From shelving to tech support, our Libraries have plenty of roles for you to fill.
- Special Events: Altadena Library District is a busy place with several large events every month that require the help of volunteers.
- Homework Helpers: Starting September 10th, teen volunteers (ages 15+ with GPAs over 3.50) are needed on Mondays and Wednesday afternoons to help students in K-5th grade with homework.

You’re probably thinking, “Sign me up! How do I get started?!?” Start your volunteer journey by visiting www.altadenalibrary.org/volunteer to fill out our volunteer application. Volunteer Coordinator Yuni LaFontaine will be in touch with you shortly to discuss next steps!

A HUGE thank you to all our dedicated volunteers that helped make this year’s Summer Reading Program a great success!

Technology Update - Main Data Frame Reconfiguration

The Library District’s Main Data Frame is getting an upgrade. Throughout the week of September 17 – 21, the Main Library will undergo a technological reconfiguration to better fit the Main Data Frame to the layout of the historical Main Library building. Adhering to best practices of proper infrastructure maintenance, this move will result in improved data security and space saving in staff areas. It will also extend the lifespan of the equipment, allowing the District to better steward taxpayer dollars in years to come.

During this period, we appreciate your patience and understanding as the following systems may experience intermittent connectivity and down time:

- Computers
- Phone answering at Main Library
- Public printing
- Library staff emails
- WiFi speed
- Remote 3D printing

There may also be a sporadic, light drilling noise around the Main Library while our workers move the physical equipment.

We appreciate your patience during this transition!
Please Note - The Altadena Library District (including both the Main Library and Bob Lucas Memorial Branch) will be closed on Monday, September 3 in observance of Labor Day.

Starting Monday, September 10

After-School Homework Club

Join the After-School Homework Club at the Main Library on Mondays & Wednesdays from 3:30 - 5:00pm

No Guilt Book Club
Tuesday, September 11th, 7:00 - 8:00pm in the Director’s Office

SEPTEMBER’S READS:

My Grandmother Asked Me to Tell You She’s Sorry
by Fredrik Backman

Killers of the Flower Moon: The Osage Murders and the Birth of the FBI
by David Grann

No guilt – Come even if you haven’t read the books!

August No Guilt Club Book Reviews  | “To The Sea!”

Bath toys lost at sea caught Donovan Hohn’s imagination to such an extent that he gave up his job and went off on a pilgrimage to find out what happened to them and why they ended up where they did. Twenty-eight thousand plastic toys adrift in the Pacific Ocean! In an attempt to find the full lifecycle of not just the duckies, but also beavers, frogs and turtles, Hohn goes up and down the Alaskan coast boating and beachcombing for the toys cast upon the rugged north Pacific shores. He goes to sea many times, joining scientific expeditions looking at the plastic content of the Pacific, meso scale currents in the North Atlantic, and crossing the North West Passage, all exploring the possible tracks these toys could have taken. He even goes to China to find the birth place of these toys and crosses the Pacific on a container ship not unlike the one the Floatees fell from. Moby-Duck: The True Story of 28,800 Bath Toys Lost at Sea & of the Beachcombers, Oceanographers, Environmentalists & Fools Including the Author Who Went in Search of Them is an incredible lens to look at our oceans, a largely unexplored part of our earth, the impact we are having on them, as well as the dangers that still lie out at sea. What book club members found most interesting were the various people the author met on his quest. Many were amateur beachcombers with an overriding interest in things maritime, especially floatsam and jetsam.

Virginia Woolf’s classic, To The Lighthouse is definitely not to everyone’s taste. It reads more like a hundred-page poem and a stream of consciousness novel than a contemporary best seller. This book is essentially divided into two parts: a day in the life of a British family and their guests at a seaside cottage, and ten years after the death of the matriarch, Mrs. Ramsay. This story captures the importance of family and the need for families to be strong, as exemplified in the structures of thought and time. Woolf was admired for her fluid, realistic and breath-taking style. She makes everyone in the cast have internal dialogues while they’re also talking out loud. She artfully works her way into the skin of every character and sees the world through their biases, experiences, and memories. It’s about beauty, about the incredible tragedy of time passing, about art and the world, about love and marriage, about people. It’s not only a book about life, it is a book of life itself.
